

Expenses/Incomes

Income and Expense Record Program is a program for record your income and expense daily or monthly or each year to save money and manage your own money with stability and sustainability.

Advantages

- User can delete some data that they want to delete.
- It's easy to check data of other day.
- User can insert income and expense in the same time.
- This program has Note box to note something that you want.

Disadvantages

- This program has no secure because the account can not be separated and it has no security system in the case that user share the computer with other people.
- User can't change the size of window in this program.
- User can't check summary of month or year.
- Note box has limit of message that can show.

